Let Lovely Leitrim tempt you and let your cares drift away.....

Leitrim's capital, Carrick on Shannon has beautiful marinas, riverside walks and bustling attractive streetscapes and of course the majestic river Shannon to its credit. This is Ireland's fastest growing inland waterway resort.

The Bush Hotel has a superb central location – close to all the wonderful amenities Carrick on Shannon has to offer. Come take a closer look. Our town is full of history and hospitality, proud of its laid back approach where craic agus ceol are plentiful, where stress and traffic jams are way behind you.

Enjoy lively entertainment from traditional music, to Shannon cruises, golfing, and market yard traders. Carrick on Shannon has a long history of trade, carried on today in Carricks quaint shops and local crafts displays.

There are old-world off street pubs and busy restaurants to experience in the town and on the river side there is beautiful scenery, teaming bars, Shannon boat trips and a world of paradise for anglers.

The Bush Hotel is central to the thriving town of Carrick on Shannon and offers guests a Two Hundred year tradition of comfort. The Bush Hotel started life as an Inn for weary travelers and their horses on the coach journey between Dublin and Sligo. Today that strong tradition of inn keeping and comfort continues; Whilst completely modernised the hotel retains much of it's old world tradition, character and charm and many memorabilia from the past.
